

On May 16, 2024, Steven Koprince (Govology Legal Analyst) will be presenting a webinar titled "Small Business Subcontracting Plans: What SBLOs Need to Know." When a federal prime contractor is classified as "other than small," the prime contractor is often responsible for preparing and carrying out a small business subcontracting plan under FAR 19.7 and other applicable laws. This training provides an overview of the key components of small business subcontracting plans. You will learn when subcontracting plans are required, how to find and identify eligible subcontractors, what elements must be included in subcontracting plans, and much more. If you are a Small Business Liaison Officer (SBLO), this training is a must-attend event.
